SOCIETY WILL RECEIVE MISS MARTHA VALENTINE

One of Season's Charming Debutantes Will Make First Bow at Dance To-Night.

IS MARRIED IN WASHINGTON

Samuel F. Padgett, Jr., of Richmond, Claims Miss Yowell as Bride. Bishop O'Connell Addresses Highland Park Woman's Club To-Day.

Miss Martha Valentine will make her initial bow to Richmond society this evening at a large dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. McNeill in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel. Miss Valentine is one of the most popular buds of the season, and a number of pretty affairs have been given in her honor. To Visit Marshall House,

The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, through the president, Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, ex-tended a cordial invitation to the dele-gates attending the annual Educational Conference to visit the John Marshall House to-day between the hours of 9 and 3 o'clock. It has been the custom of this association to extend this courtesy to educational bodies meeting here ince acquiring the building from the

A committee composed of the members has been asked to be present to welcome the visitors.

Highland Park Club. Rt. Rev. D. J. O'Connell, Bishop of ichmond, will address the Woman's Club of Highland Park this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the clubrooms, 1520 First Avenue. Bishop O'Connell's subject will be "Palatine Hill," and the members of the club may obtain invitation cards from the secretary, Mrs. J. Stirl-ing Taylor. Refreshments will be served after the lecture.

Marriage Announced. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Blenner announce the marriage of their daughter, Mamle Ruth, to Virgil Robert May, of Chatham. The ceremony took place Emperor and Court Journey in Richmond, Rev. Oscar Guthe offi-ciating. After a wedding trip through the North, Mr. and Mrs. May will make their home in Richmond.

Guests of Mrs. Philips.

Mrs. H. F. Lewis, Miss Mary Huntsman, of Bristol, and Mrs. E. J. Hunt, Danville, are the guests of Mrs. I. Philips for this week.

Padgett-Yowell.

at 1720 Grove Avenue

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

Mrs T. W. Simmons of Hagerstown Md. in the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Williamson Talley, on Monument Ave-

Miss Helen L. Daniels, of Charlottesville, is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Bentley, at 2041-2 West Grace Street. Miss Ursula Harrison, of "Belvoir," Fauquier County, is visiting Miss Vir-

Captain and Mrs. Bowles Edward Armistead and Miss Courtenay Armistead, of Fauquier County, have been visiting relatives here.

Mahood—Sparrow.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
MARTINSVILLE, VA., November 25.
Miss Kathleen Elizabeth Sparrow, only daughter of J. D. Sparrow, of this city, and B. Mahood, of Bluefield, W.
Va. were married at the heart Va., were married at the home of the bride's father, on Church Street on Tuesday, Dr. J. P. McCabe, pastor of the Baptist Church here, performing the ceremony, Otis E. St. Clair, of Bluefield, W. Va., was best man and the only attendant.

Toomey—Stultz.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

MARTINSVILLE. VA., November 25.

William N. Toomey, of Canton, O., and Miss Sallie Stultz, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stultz, living near Martinsville, were married at the home of the bride on Tuesday, Dr. J. P. McCabe performing the ceremony. The wedding was attended by a number of the friends and relatives of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Toomey left for Canton, O., where they will make their home. A touch of pathos was added to the marriage by the fact that both bride and groom are mutes.

Limerick—Jett.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., November
25.—Charles W. Limerick, of Stafford County, and Miss Lena Jett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross T. Jett, of Spotsylvania County, were married here last night at St. Mary's Catholic Church,
Rev. Father Thomas B. Martin performing the ceremony. Miss Ada Limerick was maid of honor. After a Southern bridal trip, Mr. and Mrs. Limerick will make their home in Stafford County.

Benjamin J. Carver, of this city, and Miss Lula Thacker, of Louisa County. Miss Lula Thacker, of Louise County, went to Washington yesterday, where they were married. After a brief wedding trip they will make their home in this city.

SKETCHES FROM LIFE -:- By Temple RECORD-BREAKING CROWD

YOSHIHITO MAKES VISIT TO TOMB OF MUTSUHITO

Kyoto to Fushimi by Special Train, Being Greeted by Huge Crowds.

KYOTO, November 25.—Emperor ours. Lieutenant Oglesby has just the theaters had long lines waiting to gain admission.

Sent home a holograph letter from Rudyard Kipling, in which Mr. Kipling congratulated him upon his transfer and assures him that he will soon day to Fushimi to pay homage before day to Fushimi to pay homage before the mausoleum of the late Emperor At the Raleigh Hotel, Washington, Mutsuhito at Momoyama. The Em-

Calvary Baptist Church, Washington.

Those witnessing the ceremony were Mrs. S. F. Padgett, Sr., and Arthur Padgett, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kilby, A. W. and Joseph L. Yowell, of Peola Mills; Mrs. C. R. Story, of Washington; Miss Frances Story, of Padgeteraville Green Court of Padgeteraville Green of Ruckersville, Green County, and moyama mausoleum, and that of the Miss Ruth Butts, of Alexandria.

The bride entered with her brother, of Momoyama. The place is situated The bride entered with her brother,
A. W. Yowell, followed by the groom and his best man, Arthur Padgett.
After the ceremony they left for the North, and will make their home

The site was selected according to the wish of the late Emperor himself, who sometimes visited the country on his tours to Kyoto, and who greatly admired the beauty of the district.
Upon arrival at Momoyama station the Emperor drove to the mausolea ground. Alighting at the foot of the hill he proceeded to the sacred precinct of the mausoleum. The crown brince and all princes and princesses of the imperial family followed His Majesty, and the whole court escorted the imperial procession.

Miss Emily Harrison, of Charles City
County, is visiting the Misses Vaden, at "Buck Hill."

The ceremony was begun with the presentation of offerings before the manuscleum by the situation. at "Buck Hill."

A. B. Chandler, of New York City, is spending a short time with friends in this city. "Miss Frances Witz, of Staunton; Miss

Miss Frances Witz, of Staunton; Miss

IN PAYING QUANTITIES

Mrs. W. Nevins Fishburne is visiting Professor and Mrs. W. H. Whiting at Hampden Sidney College.

Miss Stuart Jones, of North Carolina, was among the out-of-town guests attending the Poliard-Butler wedding.

Miss Blair Whitlock, of Tobaccoville, is the guest of friends in this city.

Willie Smithey, of Harrisonburg, is spending several days with friends in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peyton McGuire

IN PATING QUANTILES at Surprise to the surprise to the Times-Dispatch. I [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., November 25.—
The result of the first assay of the quartz taken from the old gold mine in Eastern Campbell County shows eleven ounces of gold to the ton, in a ton of specimens sent recently to New Jersey. Experts say this signifies gold in greater quantities further in the mine. The result of the first report is that a force will begin working the mine regularly next week.

The mine was abandoned about stricker, of Washington, was the best

Rev. and Mrs. Claudius Smith. of Lynchburg, have been guests of friends in Richmond this week.

KIPLING CONGRATULATES

ferred from The Oxford and Bucks' Infantry to the Royal Mounted Engineers. He was a lieutenant in the infantry, and goes to the new assignment with the same commission. Mr. Oglesby was for a number of years one of the assistants in the engineering department of the city of Lynchiouses during the day, and last night the theaters were playing to capacity houses, there was a continuous stream of humanity flowing up and down the street. Last night the down town corners it was almost impossible to pass through the one of the assistants in the engineering department of the city of Lynchiouses during the day, and last night the theaters had long lines weither

Stump-Williams.

At the Raleigh Hotel, Washington, at 2 o'clock, Wednesday, November 24.

Samuel F. Padgett, Jr., of Richmond, and Miss Edna Earle Yowell, of Peola Mills, Rappahannock County, were huge welcoming crowds colmarried, the officiating minister being Rev. Samuel H. Green, D. D., of Calvary Baptist Church, Washington.

Satusinio at Monoyama, The Firm 2 in the Special to The Times-Dispatch I BRISTOL, VA. November 25.—Claration, where huge welcoming crowds collected.

Only two years have clapsed since the father of the groom, J. T. Stump, and other relations of the late sovereign were and other relations of the late sovereign were and other relations.

FOR ELOPING COUPLES

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, VA., November 25,—Rev.
A. H. Burroughs performed a triple wedding ceremony at the Bristol Gretna Green to-day, uniting in marriage the following young eloping couples: O. B. Eads, of Kimball, W. Va., and Miss Mattie Phipps, of Pocahontas, Va.; Berton Debusk and Miss Rosa Simcox, of Lodi, Washington County, Va., and Arles Kimberling and Miss Edith Tibbs, of Ceres, Bland County, Va. Two other couples married by Dr. Burroughs were James Taylor and Miss Lucille Hart, of Smyth County, Va., and John B. Lyons, of Hawkins County, Tennessee. and Miss Littes Pitts, of Bristol, Valuable Deposits Found.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] 25.—Valuable graphite deposits have been discovered in Albemarle County, developing it commenced this week The quality of the ore is exceedingly fine. It is of the crystalline nature

Miss Frances Witz, of Staunton; Miss Cary Dabney, of Philadelphia, and Williss Sprinkle, of Marion, are spending the week with Hamilton and Luther Scherer at their home on Grove Avenue.

Randolph Owen, of North Carolina, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Owen, in Chesterfield, for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen P. Beveridge are spending Thanksgiving week in New York and will attend the Army and Navy game there to-morrow.

Captain and Mrs. Bowles Edward

And read a Shinto prayer Then the Emperor approached, made a low bow and spent some moments in silent meditation. Next the crown prince and the princes and princesses of the imperial family worshiped. Subsequently the members of the retinue and other participants were allowed to pay their homage.

The ceremonials being concluded, the Emperor left the mausoleum, and visiting the eastern mausoleum, prayed for the repose and happiness of the spirit of Empress Haruko.

The Emperor left Momoyama by special train and returned to Kyoto in the afternoon. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., November 25.— Announcement has been made here of the marriage of Harry W. Peters, of this city, and Miss Nellie May Stuart daughter of James L. Stuart, of Bed ford County, which was solemnized on November 13 by Rev. J. L. Rosser, D. D. paster of the First Baptist Church, of that city. While the marriage was not an elopement, it was nevertheless a surprise to friends of the principals.

The mine was abandoned about stricker, of Washington, was the best

Arthur—Mitchell. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., November 25. NGRATULATES
LYNCHBURG SOLDIER Mitchell, both of Coleman Falls, were [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., November 25.—
R. H. Oglesby, of Lynchburg, who enlisted last summer in the English army and spent several months in training at Oxford, has been trans-

Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Insures the most delicious and healthful food

NO ALUM-NO PHOSPHATE

HERE TO ATTEND GAME

Railroads Estimate Number of Visitors to City at From 8,000 to 10,000.

MANY SPECIAL TRAINS RUN

Big Throng on Broad Street and in Theaters and Hotel Lobbies-North Carolinians Are Jubilant at Holding Score to So Low a Figure.

Richmond fell before the storm of he largest crowd gathered in the city n twelve months yesterday, and, in true Southern style, turned host to the vast number of visitors from two states. The Thanksgiving Day throng States. The Tranksgiving Day the which began to arrive before the break of day in special trains, was estimated to be the largest visiting the city on this occasion in several

Railroad officials and hotel last night estimated the out-of-town crowd at between 8,000 and 10,000 peo-ple. In addition to the football forowers, of which there were numbers intold, there are about 2,000 visitors here attending the tenth annual Virginia Education Conference. Six spe-cial trains and many additional cars to the regular trains were run into the elty yesterday by the railroads, and every one brought a large crowd. GREAT CROWD POURS

UP AND DOWN BROAD STREET The throng on Broad Street yester-day afternoon and last night was one of the largest seen on the White Way in recent months, and was remark-ably orderly. The traffic at the down-town corners was so great as to re-quire two and three traffic officers to regulate the flow and prevent conges-tion. In the afternoon, while the football game was in progress and the theaters were playing to capa-city houses, there was a continuous the roar of horns, while the students yelled until their voices were hoarse and throats sore.

The Norfolk and Westers Railway ran a special from Norfolk with a large crowd, with extra cars on their regular trains, as did the Atlantic

HOTEL LOBBIES ARE
PACKED WITH ENTHUSIASTS with a vast throng, many again living over the game of the afternoon, while others lamented their losses. While there was no considerable betting on the game, North Carolina surprised many who had slated Virginia to win by a larger figure.

by a larger figure.

Members of the student bodies of both universities were happy over the ing at thirty-minute intervals. These trains returned last night at midnight.

Thalhimer Brothers

Thousands of Beautitul Four-In-Hand Ties At 25c

Each in a handsome Xmas box. Over two hundren new and distinctive patterns to select from. Large shapes and the most wonderful values we have ever offered at the above

The hotel lobbies were crowded to record trains arriving up

Dudley-Madera.

result of the game, one apparently as much so as the other, for the Tarheels hooked on the final score as a moral looked on the final score as a moral object of their team and the dele-WEST POINT, VA., November 25 .looked on the final score as a moral victory for their team, and the delegation from Chapel Hill returned home last night with laurels to their credit. The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway operated two special trains to the city yesterday with a large crowd, one from Charlottesville and the other from Newport News. The Southern Railway ran three specials to Richmond, and had, in addition, extra cars attached to their regular trains. These arrived in South Richmond beginning shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday mornshortly after

In former years all the pur-chases for Xmas were made at the "rush time," hastly, and in many cases, unsatisfactorily. Now the rule is to

Come Early

You select from the complete Xmas stocks, you have more time, you get exactly what you want, you look forward to the holidays with real pleasure rather than dread. Will you try this way this year?

The Kaufmann Store

Exclusive, Delightful Modes in

Fine Waists

CREPE DE CHINE, Georgette and Lace combinations; Pussy Willow in new colorings; dressy and tailored models, $3.39.

An exclusive line of Lace Waists, Silk Shadow Lace and Georgette combinations: Waists elaborate and beautiful enough to go with any costume; conservatively $5.00 values, Novelties in Striped Silk Shirtings; exquisite colorings, delicate and striking conceits, $5.00.

Also plaids, stripes, solid colors; Lace combinations, Georgette and Crepe de Chine; conceptions in endless profusion, $5.00.

Full well every teacher knows the value of specialization and concentration. These applied to our business have made us the foremost specialty shop for LADIES' EXCLU-SIVE WEARING APPAREL in the State. To make your visit with us profitable, as well as pleasant and instructive, we shall offer a few examples of many notable styles and priceattractions for the next three days.

All of Our Women's Tailored Suits

Former values up to $24.75. Velvet and fur-trimmed in broadcloth, poplin, gabardine and serge. The very latest models and lengths, with tun hard skirts. Sizes 34 to 44. Colors: brown, blue, $14.75 latest models and lengths, with full flare and side plaited

$1.98 Couldn't Buy a $3.00 Silk Waist

at a more acceptable time than Thanksgiving week. We cannot guarantee to duplicate this lot. Be among the two hundred fortunates. They are charming styles in crepe de chine, pussy willow silk; also a few crepe de chine stripes. Colors: white, flesh, i.e, Copen, black, navy brown.

With the Wearing of Heavy Winter Coats Again Comes the Need for

Separate Skirts

This department offers as a Convention Special three dozen skirts, in poplin, gabardine and serge. Former values $5, $7.50 and $10. While they last,

$1.90, $2.98 and $3.98

One Lot of Petticoats

of black mercerized Italian cloth. Good, serviceable garment for schoolroom wear....... $1.25

One Lot of Petticoats in taffeta and messaline. All colors to match $1.98

We Have Selected from Our Large Stock of Women's Smart Winter Coats

fifty garments from broken sizes and discontinued cloths. Values up to $24.75. These will be displayed $9.75 on a special rack at.....

Many values at various other prices are on a plane with this better-than-ordinary offering. The muchwanted Black Plush Coat from

$19.75 to $49.75

New Trimmed Hats at Remach's

are the smartest shown this season, and the modest prices a revelation.

Hats for the new WINTER SEASON are different. Rich gold and silver laces, handsome fur and the new colors all play an important part.

Let US show you these charming creations, formerly priced at nearly double.

Our Prices, $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00

Lace Veiling, black and assorted colors.

15c Per Yard. Chiffon Veils, assorted col-

25c Each. Mourning Veils, Brussels net, nernana and crepe, 50c to $18 Each.

Sweaters

are now considered among the necessities. Just the needed garment for crisp mornings in the schoolroom. We offer any Sweater in our stock at $2.00 less than the plainly marked price, for three days only.